October 2026

Dear Friends

Thank you for your generous donations to our Harvest Appeal 2026. These contributions at harvest time are vital for maintaining our food stocks and helping us meet the expected demand from local homeless and vulnerable adults who will need our services over the coming year.

Due to the challenges arising from the increase in the cost of living, we are especially mindful that your contributions will be vital during these difficult times.

the Friary continue to provide hot breakfasts twice a week for rough sleepers and food parcels that are stocked differently depending upon whether an individual has access to cooking facilities. Everything is appreciated by those who need it, and nothing goes to waste.

On behalf of the Friary, please thank everyone who kindly contributed in any way. All donations make a vital difference to those we support and help us continue our work.

With much thanks and appreciation for your support.

Yours sincerely

WELCOME TO RELIVED BY SHAREWEAR

Following a presentation at the Rushcliffe Schools Alliance Pupil Parliament, school MPs are now part of the 'Relived' project, by the charity Sharewear which aims to rehome unwanted clothing. Jesse Gray is now a partner school and we have a collection point which will be active during specific weeks in the year. This week and the first week after half term will be our first collection period. This is a great opportunity for a half term clear out and will provide much needed clothing for those in difficult circumstances.

We would love...
everyday clothing
coats/jackets
school uniform (No school logos please) sports wear
shoes, trainers or football boots belts/bags
hats/scarves/gloves
dressing up costumes
lightly used towels or bedding (No pillows or duvets please)

Please do not donate anything that is damaged or dirty, if you wouldn't give it to your friend, please don't give it to us.

WELCOME TO RELIVED BY SHAREWEAR

JESSE GRAY PRIMARY SCHOOL HAS BEEN CHOSEN TO JOIN RELIVED AS A PARTNER TO FREETHS.

Freeths have been members of the scheme since 2023 and have saved 846.9 kg of clothing from landfill. They have clothed 564 people in our local community.

ReLived
BY SHAREWEAR
Breathing new life into people & clothing

Sharewear Clothing Scheme is an Edwalton based charity which redistributes unwanted good quality clothing to those who are facing financial hardship.

We do this by collecting clothing donations from across Nottinghamshire and providing this clothing free of charge to those who have been referred to us for support. We also provide outreach orders of clothing to local organisations and charities.

We run a corporate scheme called ReLived where businesses pay a subscription fee. As part of their subscription they get to partner with a school to join the scheme for free.

What does this mean?

We will provide the school with a ReLived container to receive any unwanted good quality donations.
We will collect the donated clothing once a month.
The clothing will then be weighed to track how much clothing the school community have diverted from local landfill.
We will then distribute the unwanted clothing locally to those in need.
We will send the school a quarterly and annual certificate to celebrate the impact of their donations in terms of the number of people supported and the environmental impact.

WE WOULD LOVE TO RECEIVE YOUR DONATIONS VIA YOUR RELIVED CONTAINER

Threadworms

Tips on how you can self-manage threadworms.

"Supporting you to look after your family"

Key Points:

- Wash hands and scrub under fingernails regularly particularly before eating, after using the toilet/changing nappies.
- Bathe or shower every morning.
- Keep fingernails short.
- Wash sleepwear, sheets, towels and soft toys.
- Do not share towels or flannels.
- Disinfect kitchen and bathroom surfaces.

Visit your local pharmacy for advice on treating threadworms.

What are threadworms?

Threadworms (pinworms) are tiny worms in your poo. You may also see them around your child's bottom. They look like pieces of white thread. They're common in children and can spread easily.

Common symptoms include:

- extreme itching around the bottom or vagina, particularly at night.
- irritability and waking up during the night.

If you or your child has threadworms there's no need to stay off nursery, school or work.

What can be done to treat threadworms?

Your local community pharmacy can help treat threadworms.

- Prescriptions are not routinely provided for treating threadworms, you can buy medicines over the counter for adults and children.
- Medicine is usually a chewable tablet or a liquid.
- You will need to treat everyone in your household, even if they don't have symptoms.
- Ask your pharmacist which treatment to buy for a child, or if someone you need to treat is under 2 years old as some treatments are not suitable for younger children.

Medicine kills the threadworms, but it doesn't kill the eggs. Eggs can live for up to 2 weeks outside the body.

There are things you can do to stop becoming infected again. These hygiene methods should be followed for 2 weeks if you're taking medicine, or for 6 weeks if you're not taking medicine.

You should...

- ✓ Wash hands and scrub under fingernails after using the toilet or changing nappies and especially before eating.
- ✓ Encourage children to wash hands regularly.
- ✓ Bathe or shower every morning.
- ✓ Rinse toothbrushes before using them.
- ✓ Keep fingernails short.
- ✓ Wash sleepwear, sheets, towels and soft toys.
- ✓ Disinfect kitchen and bathroom surfaces.
- ✓ Vacuum and dust with a damp cloth.
- ✓ Make sure children wear underwear at night – change it in the morning.

Try not to...

- x Shake clothing or bedding, to prevent eggs landing on other surfaces.
- x Share towels or flannels.
- x Bite nails or suck thumbs/fingers.

When to seek advice from your GP

- You are pregnant or breastfeeding.
- Your child is under 2.

How to talk to your Child about their Feelings:

Why Talking About Feelings Matters:

Children who learn to talk about their feelings:

- Build stronger self-esteem.
- Cope better with stress.
- Develop empathy and stronger friendships.
- Are more likely to ask for help when they need it.

Creating the Right Environment:

- Choose calm, everyday moments (car journeys, bedtime, walking to school).
- Keep it relaxed and unpressured.
- Show warmth with body language — eye contact, open posture, gentle tone.

Listening More Than You Speak:

- Give them time to answer — silence is okay.
- Show you are listening with nods, "mm-hm" sounds, or repeating back what they've said:
  - Child: "I feel angry."
  - Parent: "You feel angry. How can I help?"

Validating and Normalising Feelings:

- All feelings are normal — it's the behaviour that matters.
- Say things like:
  - "It's okay to feel sad when plans change."
  - "Lots of people feel nervous before trying something new."
  - "It's understandable that you are feeling..."

Helping Children Find Words:

- Use emotion word banks (happy, sad, worried, proud, frustrated).
- Pair words with body clues (e.g., "When I feel worried, my tummy feels fizzy").
- Draw or show facial expressions together to match expressions with words.

Exploring Feelings Through Play:

- Use toys, puppets, or Scribbles Crew characters to act out emotions.
- Share picture books where characters feel big emotions and ask: "What do you think they're feeling? What might help?"
- Create a Feelings Passport or Feelings Chart at home.

Starting the Conversation - try simple openers like:

- "You looked a bit quiet after school today — how are you feeling?"
- "That game seemed fun! How did it make you feel?"
- "I sometimes feel worried before meetings. Do you ever feel that way before lessons?"
- "I can see you are feeling... what is the worst that could happen?"

When Big Feelings Happen:

- Stay calm yourself — children copy your energy.
- Children mirror what we are showing them, if we are showing anger, fear or excitement, they will mirror this back to us.
- Focus on connection before correction:
  - "I can see you're really upset. I'm here. Let's calm down together first."
- After they calm, talk about what happened and what might help next time.

Helpful Resources & Support

- Exciting Teacher Hub resources for home and school, including our Scribbles Crew characters.
- Recommended picture books: Tom Percival's series on Emotions, such as Tilda Tries Again or Ruby's Worry.
- Suggested activities: Feelings Passport, Scribbles Crew Emotions Check-In Board, BIG Feelings Scale.

Practical Do's and Don'ts

✓ Do use everyday moments.
✓ Do praise them when they share.
✓ Do model your own feelings: "I felt frustrated when I was late, but I took a breath and now I feel calmer."

✗ Don't dismiss feelings ("You're fine, stop crying").
✗ Don't rush the conversation.
✗ Don't shame or punish for having feelings.

If You're Worried About Your Child

- Notice patterns: withdrawing, frequent tummy aches or complaints of feeling unwell, changes in sleep/eating, not wanting to attend school or no longer taking part in activites they previously enjoyed.

- Talk to your child's teacher.
- Speak with your GP if worries continue.
- Share helplines: Childline (0800 1111), YoungMinds Parents Helpline (0808 8025544).

Get into the Christmas spirit with lots of well-known Christmas songs including some familiar favourites!

Young singers will be joined by other members of the MfE 'singing' family too on the concert day for this mega-Christmas extravaganza!

Singers will be divided into two age-group choirs:
